

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The state of South Dakota is the home of Dora Lee Gaaskjolen, and we are richer because Dora Lee lives among us; and,

Whereas, Dora Lee was born on July 3, 1925, in Glad Valley, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Birthdays commemorate the first day of our lives, and we celebrate the birthdays of those we love as we recognize the joys and sorrows we have shared, the strength we have gained from the obstacles and hardships we have conquered, and the small daily pleasures life offers; and,

Whereas, Dora Lee married Marlin and gave life and love to two daughters: Vicki and Audrey, who in turn blessed them with five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; and,

Whereas, Dora still lives on the family ranch east of Meadow, South Dakota, that she and Marlin began operating in the 1950s; and,

Whereas, Dora will observe her 80th Birthday with all the good wishes, fanfare, and celebration such a milestone warrants, as her friends and relatives gather to honor her and celebrate her life and the camaraderie of the day; and it is fitting and proper for the Governor to make note of this milestone in the life of a woman who has lived an exemplary life for all to emulate:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim July 3, 2005, as in South Dakota, and I join all her many friends and relatives in wishing her a very happy birthday, good health, and great happiness.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fourth Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Five.

M. Michael Rounds
